"Why didn't we save ourselves when we had the chance?"

"The Age of Stupid" stars Oscar-nominated Pete Postlethwaite as a man living alone in the devastated world of 2055 watching the footage of the past and asking: "Why didn't we stop climate change when we had the chance?" He plays the founder of The Global Archive, a storage facility located in the (now Melted) Arctic, preserving all of humanity's achievements in the hope that the planet might one day be habitable again. He pulls together clips of "archive" news and documentary from 1950-2008 to build a message showing what went wrong.

Please be advised that this movie is "unrated" but has been rated in other countries and is recommended for mature audiences. 14+, as it contains some profanity and disturbing images.
