

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

We do not have a national strategy for water management.
We do not have legally enforceable drinking water standards.
We are among the highest water users in the world.

The Canadian Water Innovation Lab 2010 will give you, tomorrow's leader, the insights, tools, and connections to make a difference in protecting your community's water resources.

Right now.

Waterlution – A Water Learning Experience is seeking 250 of Canada's most promising future leaders to join the discussion on sustainable water management. Participants will come together for 3 days of inspired learning at the Canadian Water Innovation Lab 2010.

APPLY NOW at www.waterlution.org
October 21-24, 2010. Exshaw, Alberta.

PARTICIPATING IN THE LAB: DO YOU FIT THE PROFILE?
