

A Roadmap for the future of the Grand River watershed Securing our water supplies

Grand River Water Management Plan Workshop Series

February 6, 2013

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Grand River Conservation Authority

Administration Office, 400 Clyde Road, Cambridge, ON

Purpose of the meeting is to:

- Share key findings from the latest water quality research
- Provide an update on the water management plan
- Discuss actions to improve the health of the river

6:30 – 7:00	Coffee & Registration with posters display
7:00 – 7:05	Welcome	GRCA
7:05 – 7:10	Meeting purpose and introductions	D. Dilks, Lura Consulting
7:10 – 7:20	Water Management Plan: Overview, update, objectives and targets	L. Minshall
7:20 – 7:25	Questions/Comments
7:25 – 7:40	River Flows and Reservoir Operations in the Grand	D. Boyd
7:40 – 8:00	Putting the Grand on a Water Budget / How can demand management help to address future water demands?	J. Etienne (Water Supply and Demand Management Working Groups)
8:00 – 8:40	Discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What action(s) is your organization currently undertaking or planning to conserve water in the watershed? 2. What additional actions could be included in the Water Management Plan to secure water supplies in the watershed?
8:40 – 8:50	Water needs of the natural environment – considering “e-flows”	A. Wong (e-flows Working Group)
8:50 - 9:00	Summary	D. Dilks, Lura Consulting